

TRUTH v. LIES.

Help expose the elites' corruption and take back our country!

December 14, 2022

Dear

“With great power,” the saying goes, “comes great responsibility.”

It’s a simple idea, yet it’s totally lost on the American Oligarchy. They demand exponential power, with absolutely no responsibility at all for how they use it.

I don’t need to tell you how that’s worked out: it’s been a total disaster—for everyday Americans and for the nation itself:

- Those in power have looted the middle class for all they’re worth.
- Our “scientific” elites seem to have suppressed the full scope of the truth about possible origins of COVID-19, along with information about potential treatments.
- The media liars have hung themselves on one fake news story after another, all while doing damage control for their corrupt friends.
- The Silicon Valley censors have silenced voices, big and small, for questioning their grand, dystopian plans.

These powerful people and institutions have failed you, me, and America. It’s time to expose all these bad actors for the corrupt looters and phonies they are. And with your help, we can do just that!

My name is James O’Keefe, and I founded Project Veritas in 2010 as a non-profit investigative journalism enterprise to conduct undercover reporting. Our undercover journalism is providing transparency and accountability—the ruthless, hard-hitting accountability—that’s in desperately short supply in our country.

When Project Veritas and its army of truth-tellers get involved, our undercover work leads to government, regulatory, and administrative investigations. Corruption is exposed in self-effectuating fashion. Leaders are fired. Organizations are shut down. Failed elites are taken out.

If you're someone brave enough to stand up and deliver the accountability our elites should be held to, then I invite you to read on and learn how you can become part of this fearless organization.

If you decide to support Project Veritas, you'll be joining a select group of brave patriots who are putting it all on the line for this land we all love.

For more than a decade, Project Veritas has investigated and exposed corruption, dishonesty, self-dealing, waste, fraud, and other misconduct in both public and private institutions to achieve a more ethical and transparent society. That's what we do, every day, with a relentless spirit and with unmatched results.

The results of our work make it a great investment: with a few thousand dollars of equipment and committed whistleblowers and truth-tellers, we can take on the dishonest organizations with billions in resources and the seemingly untouchable political elite!

Yet dollars and cents are just the beginning of how we measure the impact of our work at Project Veritas. The real measure of our work is built upon the principle of accountability and transparency that I mentioned at the beginning of this letter.

Visit your corner newsstand or the bookstore at your local shopping center. How many heavy-breathing and uncritical magazine cover stories have been written about Mark Zuckerberg, Anthony Fauci, or other elites over the years?

Too many to count.

The media tells of Zuckerberg's tech-smarts and his skill as an entrepreneur, or Fauci's commitment to "following the science." For years, before some believe he may have visited Epstein Island, Bill Gates was portrayed to us as a wise elder statesman of the tech industry and a caring philanthropist handing out mosquito nets in Africa.

For too many in our media, these elites—these supposed virtuous and altruistic cultural leaders—can do no wrong. That's what they want you to believe. They command it!

At Project Veritas, this gives us an opening to do things differently.

We know the elites parade their virtues in public . . . and conduct their fraud in the shadows. Too many reporters look past this and trade their critical judgment—along with basic journalistic ethics—for access to high-powered people.

Not us.

(next page, please)

“Mainstream” reporters willingly turn off their brains in exchange for the “big get” of a phony cover story. It’s precisely these bottom-feeders who quickly advance in their careers in mainstream media.

In fact, our most prominent media outlets are FILLED with people who have spent their entire careers polishing apples for the rich and the powerful! They have no interest in accountability, or transparency, or moral courage, or even truth-seeking.

That’s left a huge void in our society—one that Project Veritas is working to fill.

As the saying goes, “The price of liberty is eternal vigilance.” And that’s what we deliver at Project Veritas, in sharp contrast to our “mainstream” counterparts.

All these elites—whether in the government, in big corporations, or in our nation’s classrooms—are terrified of Americans’ fundamental constitutional rights.

Rights that Project Veritas will never stop fighting to protect!

I’ve poured so much of my life into Project Veritas because we need to hold these corrupt oligarchs responsible. It’s the reason I’m all-in on Project Veritas and willing to take anything the establishment can throw at me in return.

I hope you, too, will make that kind of commitment. We need good people to stand up, be brave, and do something. We need to start challenging the American Oligarchy, the elites, and our so-called “leaders” if we are ever to achieve a more ethical and transparent society!

Trust me, the work we’re doing at Project Veritas isn’t a game.

We’re doing undercover investigations because the stakes are incredibly high: so few have never held more power, yet the decisions they make behind closed doors have enormous consequences for everyday people like you and me.

Project Veritas is filling the void for newsgathering and honest, objective reporting and accountability—and we’re doing it on a budget that’s tiny in comparison with that enjoyed by the vast media and tech empires that dominate the scene.

We are emphatically NOT card-carrying members of the American billionaire class.

I grew up in New Jersey. I went to public schools. I cut lawns and became an Eagle Scout. My parents both worked real jobs and supported me in everything I did.

Growing up, the only riches we had were the kind you can’t buy: honesty, transparency, decency. America’s corrupt elites seem to have taken away everything else from us—but with your help, they won’t take that!

(over, please)

With your help, we will expose them. We will blow the lid off their schemes to erode our freedom and end the American way of life as we know it. Our investigations will hold them accountable.

The term "elite" wasn't always a dirty word in America. Our country deserves trustworthy leadership and media which live up to "elite" standards in the true sense of that word. But until that day comes, the one thing we can do RIGHT NOW is expose and root out corruption.

That begins when you become a generous supporter of Project Veritas by providing a gift of $50, $100, $250, or whatever you can afford, to support our high-powered, truth-telling undercover journalism organization. With your support, we will do the work the mainstream media WON'T. We fill an urgent need for watchdog investigative journalism in America.

You may not feel like you have great power in the face of our failed elite. But together, you and I have more than we realize. We can use that power to restore honesty, transparency, and decency to American life!

Thank you so much for standing with us, and I look forward to welcoming you as the newest supporter of Project Veritas!

PS: America's oligarchs in all facets of society have made a mess of this country, and the mainstream media has cheered them on every step of the way. Will you help us end this with your gift of $50, $100, $250, or whatever you can afford? Thank you for standing with us in this crucial work!
