Republican Study Committee, Chairman

Dear Fellow Conservative,

I am so thankful Donald Trump, Jr. wrote you on my behalf.

He and I are rushing you this communication by FIRST CLASS MAIL -- and even paying for your return postage -- because of the urgency of the situation.

As one of the most outspoken conservative leaders on Capitol Hill, I had the audacity to stand up to Nancy Pelosi.

And as Don Jr. mentioned in his letter to you, the Left doesn't like to be questioned. Ever!

That's why they're always maligning and attacking conservatives who dare to speak against their authoritarian agenda.

So when GOP Leadership asked me to serve as the Republican ranking member on the Committee to investigate the January 6 riots on the Capitol...

...I made it clear I was going to force the Democrats and the media to answer questions that had been long ignored. And just as important, I wasn't going to allow the committee to be turned into a forum for condemning 75 million conservative voters.

That was too much for the Democrats.

That's why Nancy Pelosi led a ruthless effort to try and cancel me.

But Nancy Pelosi cannot cancel us!!

And as the leader of the Republican Study Committee -- the largest conservative caucus on Capitol Hill -- I'm asking you to join my grassroots team today.

Like you, I'm fired up about taking back the House in 2022 and retiring Speaker Pelosi once and for all!

As freedom-loving Americans, we simply have no other choice. Because here's the cold, hard truth...

You and I, as conservatives, can't turn this country around -- not even a little bit -- unless we send Nancy Pelosi and her "Squad" comrades back to the House Minority.

In September of 2014, I was called up for active duty and ordered to report to Afghanistan.

And like anyone who's worn our nation's uniform and served in harm's way, you learn to manage your fears. More importantly, you learn to put things into proper perspective, and focus on what truly matters.

Today my wife, Amanda, and I have three beautiful daughters.

As parents, we're concerned about the country they will inherit.

A dramatic course correction must happen. And that's why I'm standing up and speaking out for the one thing that can pull America back from the brink...

The U.S. Constitution is by far the greatest document ever written by man. It has withstood the test of time because at its core it limits government.

More specifically, it protects our God-given freedoms from a burdensome government.

The Left simply doesn't understand this. They see our Constitution as nothing more than an obstacle to achieving ever greater control over our lives.

The Democrat Party that controls all of Washington, DC has embraced an ideology that is more dangerous than anything we've ever seen in the past.

It's worse than Progressivism. And yes -- it's even worse than Socialism.

Anti-Americanism is a political cancer that is eating away at the very fabric of our society.

"Cancel Culture", "Identity Politics", and most dangerous of all, "Critical Race Theory," all reject the core American principle of the individual and seek to pit people against each other, based solely on race.

The liberal media and many others in our pop culture are going out of its way to brush aside any concerns about "Critical Race Theory, or CRT.

But here's the truth...

CRT is a full-frontal attack on our Constitution. And it's an all-hands-on-deck push to rewrite American history.

In fact, this radical ideology teaches that the United States was founded to preserve the institution of slavery. And the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution were just gimmicks to fulfill the founders' real objective -- to create a white supremacist nation.

My friend, along with poisoning our children's schools with the hateful teachings of CRT, this rotten doctrine is now infecting the media, Hollywood, and corporate board rooms.

And sadly, it's now being spread to our military.

Over the course of my life, I've learned that good intentions are great. But it takes unwavering perseverance if you're actually going to get things done -- especially when you're facing extreme left-wing opposition.

No matter how bad things may seem, you and I must keep pushing forward. Let me be blunt...

Nancy Pelosi and the entire Democrat Establishment would like nothing better than to see me defeated. They loathe me.

And at a minimum, they want to pin me down in my Indiana district, forcing me to play defense at every possible turn.

I have a choice to make. There are two paths, and I must take only one of them.

Option #1: Tap the brakes. Let off the gas. Stop speaking out against the Left. Adopt a "go-along-to-get-along" voting pattern so I don't make headlines and don't offend anyone. This approach would hopefully lessen the Democrats' passions against me, thus decreasing the odds of any potential liberal attacks. Essentially, I could fly under the radar and hope to cruise to an easy re-elect.

Option #2: Double down on my conservative principles. Never waste an opportunity to take a stand on Capitol Hill and never shy from speaking out against the horrific Biden/Pelosi agenda and for our shared conservative values.

Simultaneously, work to build up the strongest campaign war-chest possible so that I'll have enough political strength to reach out and help elect enough conservative warriors to -- Take Back The House!

As you can probably guess by now, Option #1 is simply not going to happen. No way.

I came in fighting -- and I will go out fighting!

The Left's agenda to defund the police is causing massive crime waves all over the country. America's recently achieved energy independence has been torpedoed.

Our borders are wide open, and illegal immigrants are crossing in record numbers. A flood of new bureaucratic regulations is strangling small businesses.

And an inflation bomb, caused by unprecedented levels of spending and the threat higher taxes, is about to explode.

The radicals pushing this destructive agenda must be crushed at the ballot box!

Nancy Pelosi has already tried to silence me. She failed miserably. The tide has turned, and today I'm doing all I can to remove her from power.

But I need your urgent help today.

* If you could send my campaign $35, I would be sincerely grateful. Given the gravity of the situation, I'd be remiss if I didn't at least ask if you could do more.

For your convenience, I've even paid your return postage.

* Donations of $50, $100, $250, $500, $1,000, $2,900, and even the maximum of $5,800 are what will allow me to go on the offense just that much more.

You and I owe it to our children and their children to do everything in our power to put a halt to this anti-freedom march emanating from Washington, DC.

Now I hope you chose to join me in this must-win fight!

Sincerely,

Jim Banks (R-IN)

P.S. As Donald Trump, Jr. stressed, it's imperative that you and I take the fight to the Left! So please, use the enclosed postage-paid return envelope to rush back a contribution of at least $35 within the next 48 hours. Together, we can make a huge difference!

Donald Trump, Jr.

PERSONAL & CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Fellow Conservative,

When the Left fears you, they group together. And then like clockwork, they go into full attack mode in a concerted effort to destroy you.

And they never hold back.

You and I saw this play out during every single day of my father's time in office.

In their eyes, he was committing the greatest sin imaginable... He fought for YOU!

My father refused to remain silent. He refused to passively watch as the radical Left systematically undercut and weakened the greatest nation on earth.

Even more upsetting to these Big Tech oligarchs, dishonest media executives, and smug DC elites is that my father had the "audacity" to call them out by name...

...and he never stopped pushing back aggressively against their arrogant, insulated, and absolutely corrupt culture.

This brings us to today.

My friend, now more than ever it's imperative that we conservatives remain united. We must stand firm against this fully anti-democratic leftwing mob.

And there can be no let up!

The radical left that now controls all of Washington, DC, is working to advance policies that dissolve our borders, hammer our job creators, and poison our children's education with hateful race theories.

They're also doing everything possible to weaken our military, cripple our nation's ability to be energy independent, and hamstring our brave law enforcement.

These self-serving elites have us on a path to absolute ruin -- and we cannot allow it to continue.

When I think of the list of proven conservative fighters on Capitol Hill who always had my father's back during the toughest of political battles, one of the first names I think of is Congressman Jim Banks.

Jim is a true American patriot.

He's a veteran of the War in Afghanistan, and during his time on Capitol Hill, he's never faltered when it came to boldly advancing our pro-freedom values.

In short, he's the exact type of unapologetic conservative the woke-elitist-phonies despise most.

In recent months, he's gone out of his way to stand up to Nancy Pelosi and her authoritarian comrades throughout Washington, DC...

...and as you might expect, Nancy Pelosi is now leading a vicious effort to cancel him.

You and I can't let that happen.

Jim needs our help.

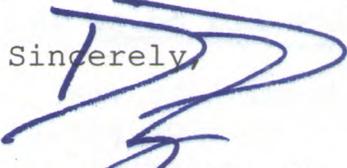

I strongly encourage you to read his letter.

And please never forget, the unhinged radicals in today's Democrat Party despise outspoken conservative leaders like my father and Congressman Jim Banks.

But in the most basic sense, they despise hard-working, grassroots conservatives like you even more.

Don't allow yourself to be silenced. Today I'm asking you to join with Jim and me -- and together we will fight back!

Sincerely,

Donald Trump, Jr.

P.S. Congressman Jim Banks is they type of bold conservative today's Left despises most, and that's why we must help him. I thank you in advance for reading Jim's letter!

Keep Fighting!
